

The Code of Ethics as a Shield: Should Your First Instinct Be “No”?

OJD/CLAS
Ethics Webinar

In this two-hour webinar, presenter Judy Jenner will encourage participants to strive to overcome the knee-jerk reaction to saying “no” to requests without thoroughly analyzing the issue. The final goal is to invite interpreters to play a more active role in the judiciary and not let the Code of Professional Responsibility become a barrier to our work. This session will be highly interactive and will be governed by a simple participation rule: agree to disagree and learn and grow.

By the end of this webinar participants will:

- Understand when the interpreter has a true conflict of interest and how to apply best practices when dealing with ethics issues.
- Process how to become a better advocate for the profession by having better interaction with other players from the judiciary.

Date: November 3, 2022

Time: 5:30 PM—7:30 PM PT

Cost: $50.00

Location: Webex Webinar

Credits: 2 Oregon Ethics Credits (see online registration for other states)

Register Online

The Code of Ethics as a Shield: Should Your First Instinct Be “No”?

OJD/CLAS
Ethics Webinar

Judy Jenner is a Spanish and German business and legal translator, conference interpreter, and federally certified Spanish court interpreter as well as state-certified court interpreter in Nevada, California, and Washington. She has an MBA in marketing and runs her boutique translation and interpreting business, Twin Translations, with her twin sister Dagmar. She was born in Austria and grew up in Mexico City. She is a former in-house translation department manager. She writes the blog Translation Times and the "Entrepreneurial Linguist" column for The ATA Chronicle, serves as one of the ATA spokespersons, and is a frequent conference speaker at conferences around the country and the world. She is the co-author of The Entrepreneurial Linguist: The Business-School Approach to Freelance Translation, which has sold more than 10,000 copies. Judy also holds a master's degree in Spanish/English conference interpreting from Glendon College at York University in Toronto, Canada and teaches interpreting at the University of California-San Diego and at her alma mater, the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. Her special talent is memorizing airport codes.

Date: November 3, 2022

Time: 5:30 PM—7:30 PM PT

Cost: $50.00

Location: Webex Webinar

Credits: 2 Oregon Ethics Credits (see registration form for other states)

Register Online

